WebJunction Watch: Find Yourself at WebJunction Kansas

by Cindi Hickey, WebJunction Kansas Coordinator

WebJunction Watch: Find Yourself at WebJunction Kansas!

Are you having trouble getting into WebJunction Kansas? With its wealth of information, conversations, and courses, WebJunction can b overwhelming. Try these tools to explore WebJunction bit by bit.

Crossroads, the monthly WebJunction electronic newsletter, intends to keep members informed about news and events in the WebJunction community. You can subscribe to the newsletter from the WebJunction Kansas homepage.

What you'll find in this newsletter is WebJunction news, a link to WebJunction's Weekly Tips (see more below), information about the Course of the Month (it will be free to you if you are a registered WebJunction Kansas member) and more. All of this will be delivered to your e-mail inbox. You can scan the newsletter in a minute or take time to explore the resources from the included hot links. It's a great way to get introduced to WebJunction. P.S. Click HERE to visit the Crossroads archives for a taste.

Weekly Tips can also be delivered direct to your e-mail inbox. These short tips link you to a WebJunction resource that you can explore c your own. Weekly Tips tackle a diverse array of topics. For example, the last 5 topics included Teen Outreach, Avoid Email Overload, Disaster Planning, What Everybody Ought to Know About Writing a Blog, and Research and Statistics. To see the list of previous topics, visit the Weekly Tips archive. To sign up for Weekly Tips, click HERE to go to the Weekly Tips subscription page.

Until Next Month…

Have a favorite hangout at WebJunction Kansas? Have some WebJunction tips or tricks? Share them with Kansas Kilroy c/o Cindi Hickey, chickey@kslib.info.