

State Library Will Sponsor a Variety of Programs at KLA Conference April 9-11 in Wichita

by Patti Butcher, Director of Statewide Resource Sharing

The State Library of Kansas staff will sponsor a number of events and programs at the Kansas Library Conference in Wichita. Come and talk with the friendly SLK staff about Kansas library development!

Special Events

- State Librarian's Luncheon – Hats Off to Kansas Libraries! (Thursday lunch)
- Kansas Center for the Book – Dessert with Kansas Authors (Wednesday evening)

Program Sessions

- Meet the author who will be featured in the next Kansas Reads Project – Nancy Pickard sponsored by Kansas Center for the Book with Roy Bird
- KLC/KICNET Update with Jeff Hixon and Rhonda Machlan
- Sunflower SOL Programs Sponsored by WebJunction with Cindi Hickey
- Update on state Certification Programs with Shannon Roy
- HomeworkKansas Update with Marc Galbraith
- SLK Update – Cool New Stuff! with Patti Butcher and Eric Gustafson

Be sure and visit the State Library booths in the exhibits!

Eric Gustafson